FOSTERING AN INCLUSIVE AND SHOCK RESPONSIVE SOCIAL PROTECTION SYSTEM IN CAMBODIA (FIRST)

JAN 2021-17 JAN 2024

FUNDED BY

European Union
Delegation to Cambodia

APPROACH

The project intends to reach approximately 1,750,000 individuals, comprising of formal and informal economic workers (street vendors, market sellers, domestic workers, waste collectors, tuk-tuk driver, service workers, construction workers, farmers), people with disabilities, elderly people, women and children and ID poor households who are prone to risks and economic shocks.

- Employ a Human Rights-Based and Inclusive Approach
- Working with a nation-wide and groups of people and workers
- Empower citizen's representatives for social dialogue
- Create strong national coalitions for more inclusive, and shock responsive social protection
- Conduct awareness raising to foster greater understanding about social protection
- Ensure gender responsiveness throughout the project
- Strengthen the capacity of consortium members
- Pilot social accountability mechanism for public feedback.
