

OIL AND RIGHTS

THE OIL AND GAS LIFE CYCLE

Your voice counts! Get informed and engage in the oil conversation

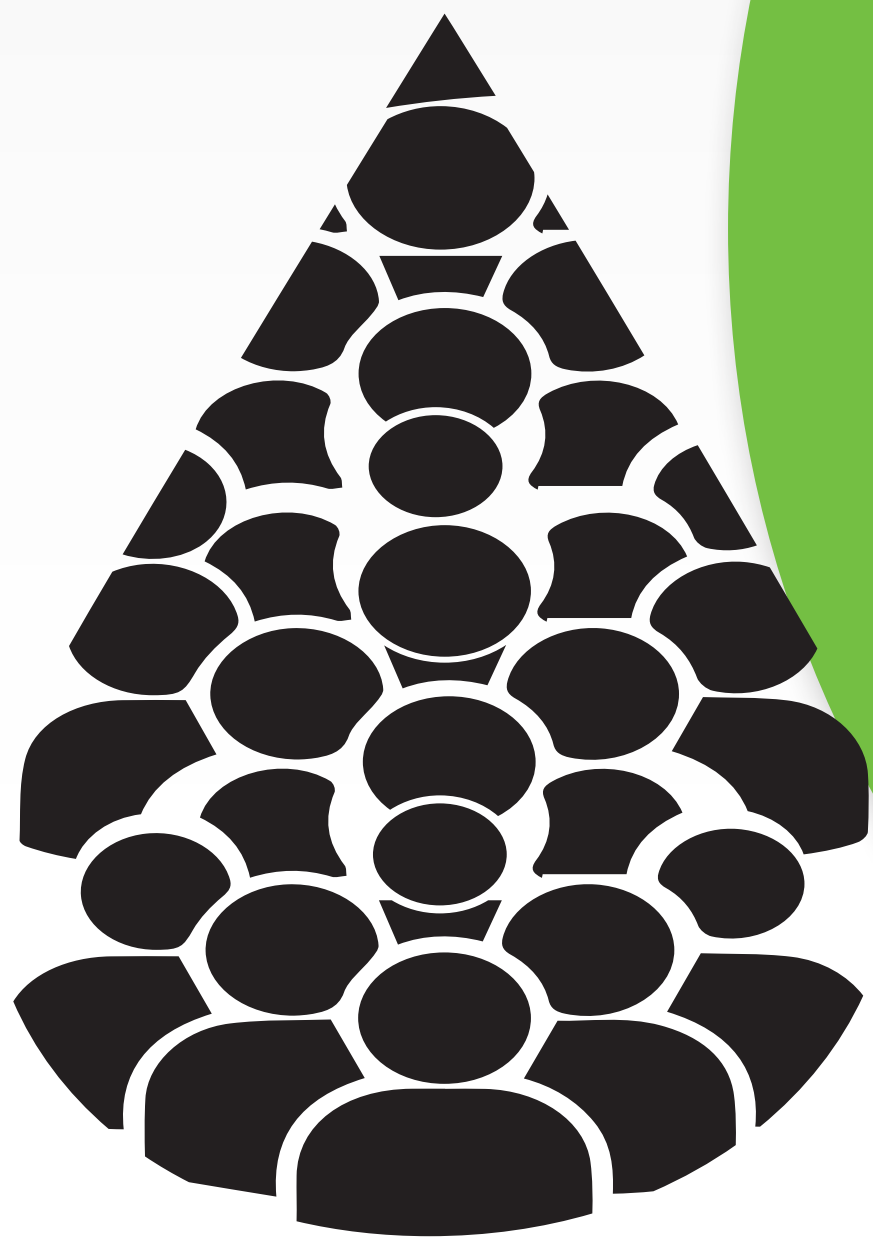

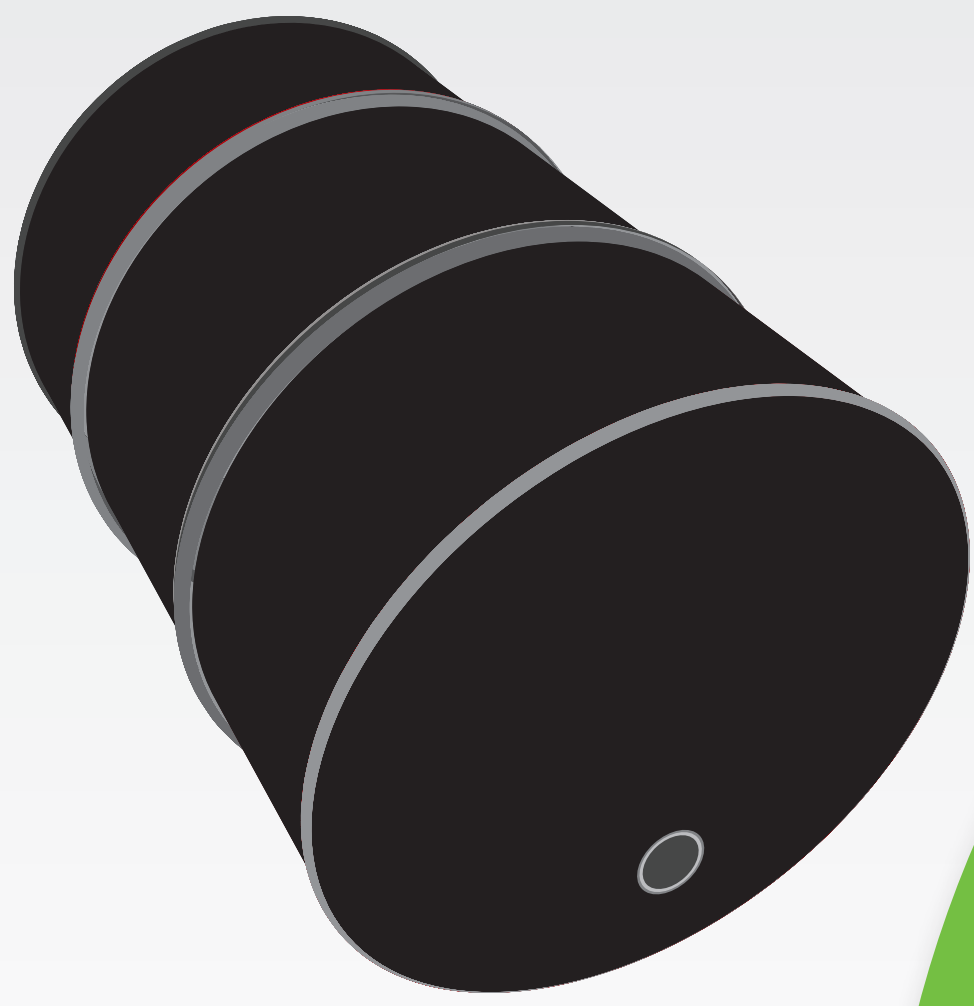

Source: The Kenya Extractives Industry Development Programme (KEIDP) public awareness component messages, September 2015

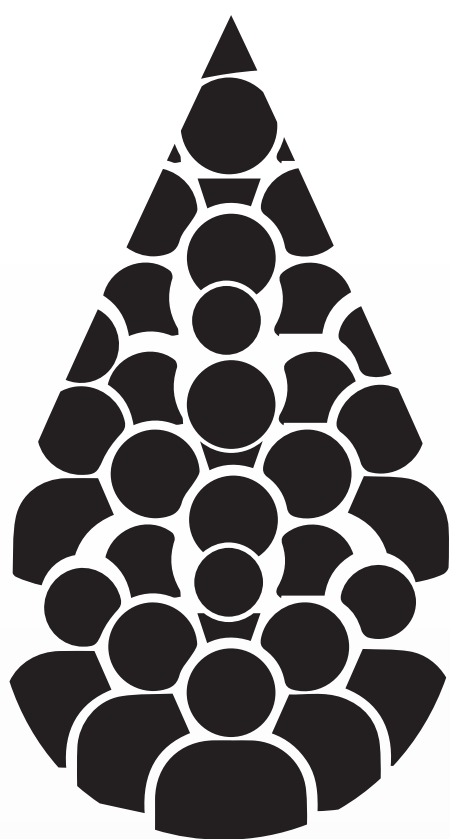

A FUTURE WITHOUT POVERTY

BE IN THE KNOW!

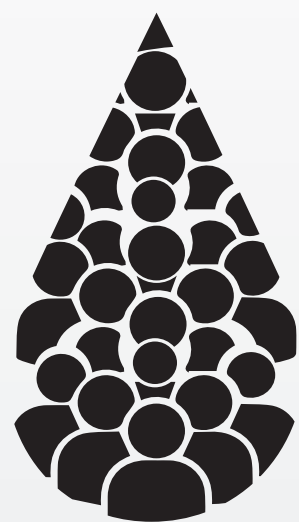

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE IN THE OIL SECTOR FOR THE PEOPLE OF TURKANA AND BEYOND

JOB FOR TURKANA COMMUNITIES & LOCAL COMPANIES

JOB FOR LOCAL & NATIONAL COMPANIES

EXPERTS & EXPATRIATES

Requires no particular skill, expertise or educational attainment and are mainly sourced among local communities; Construction workers/manual labourers, cleaners, laundry workers. Others requiring little training; storekeepers, logisticians, catering staff.

These are generally provided by local and national companies, fuel suppliers, hotels and accommodation, IT personnel, medical staff, catering, transportation services, human resources management, administrators, security officers, general trades, and waste management

UN SKILLED CASUAL JOBS & NON SPECIALIST

Jobs requiring particular skills; field construction, infield transport and logistics, civil works, mechanical and electrical services, environmental impact assessments, site preparation, International freight services, specialist trades: welding, carpenters, crane drivers, heavy

JOB REQUIRING SKILLS AND EXPERTISE

1. Wellhead jobs
2. Well services
3. Seismic services
4. Rig Hire

HIGHLY SPECIALISED JOB

Source: The Kenya Extractives Industry Development Programme (KEIDP)
public awareness component messages, September 2015

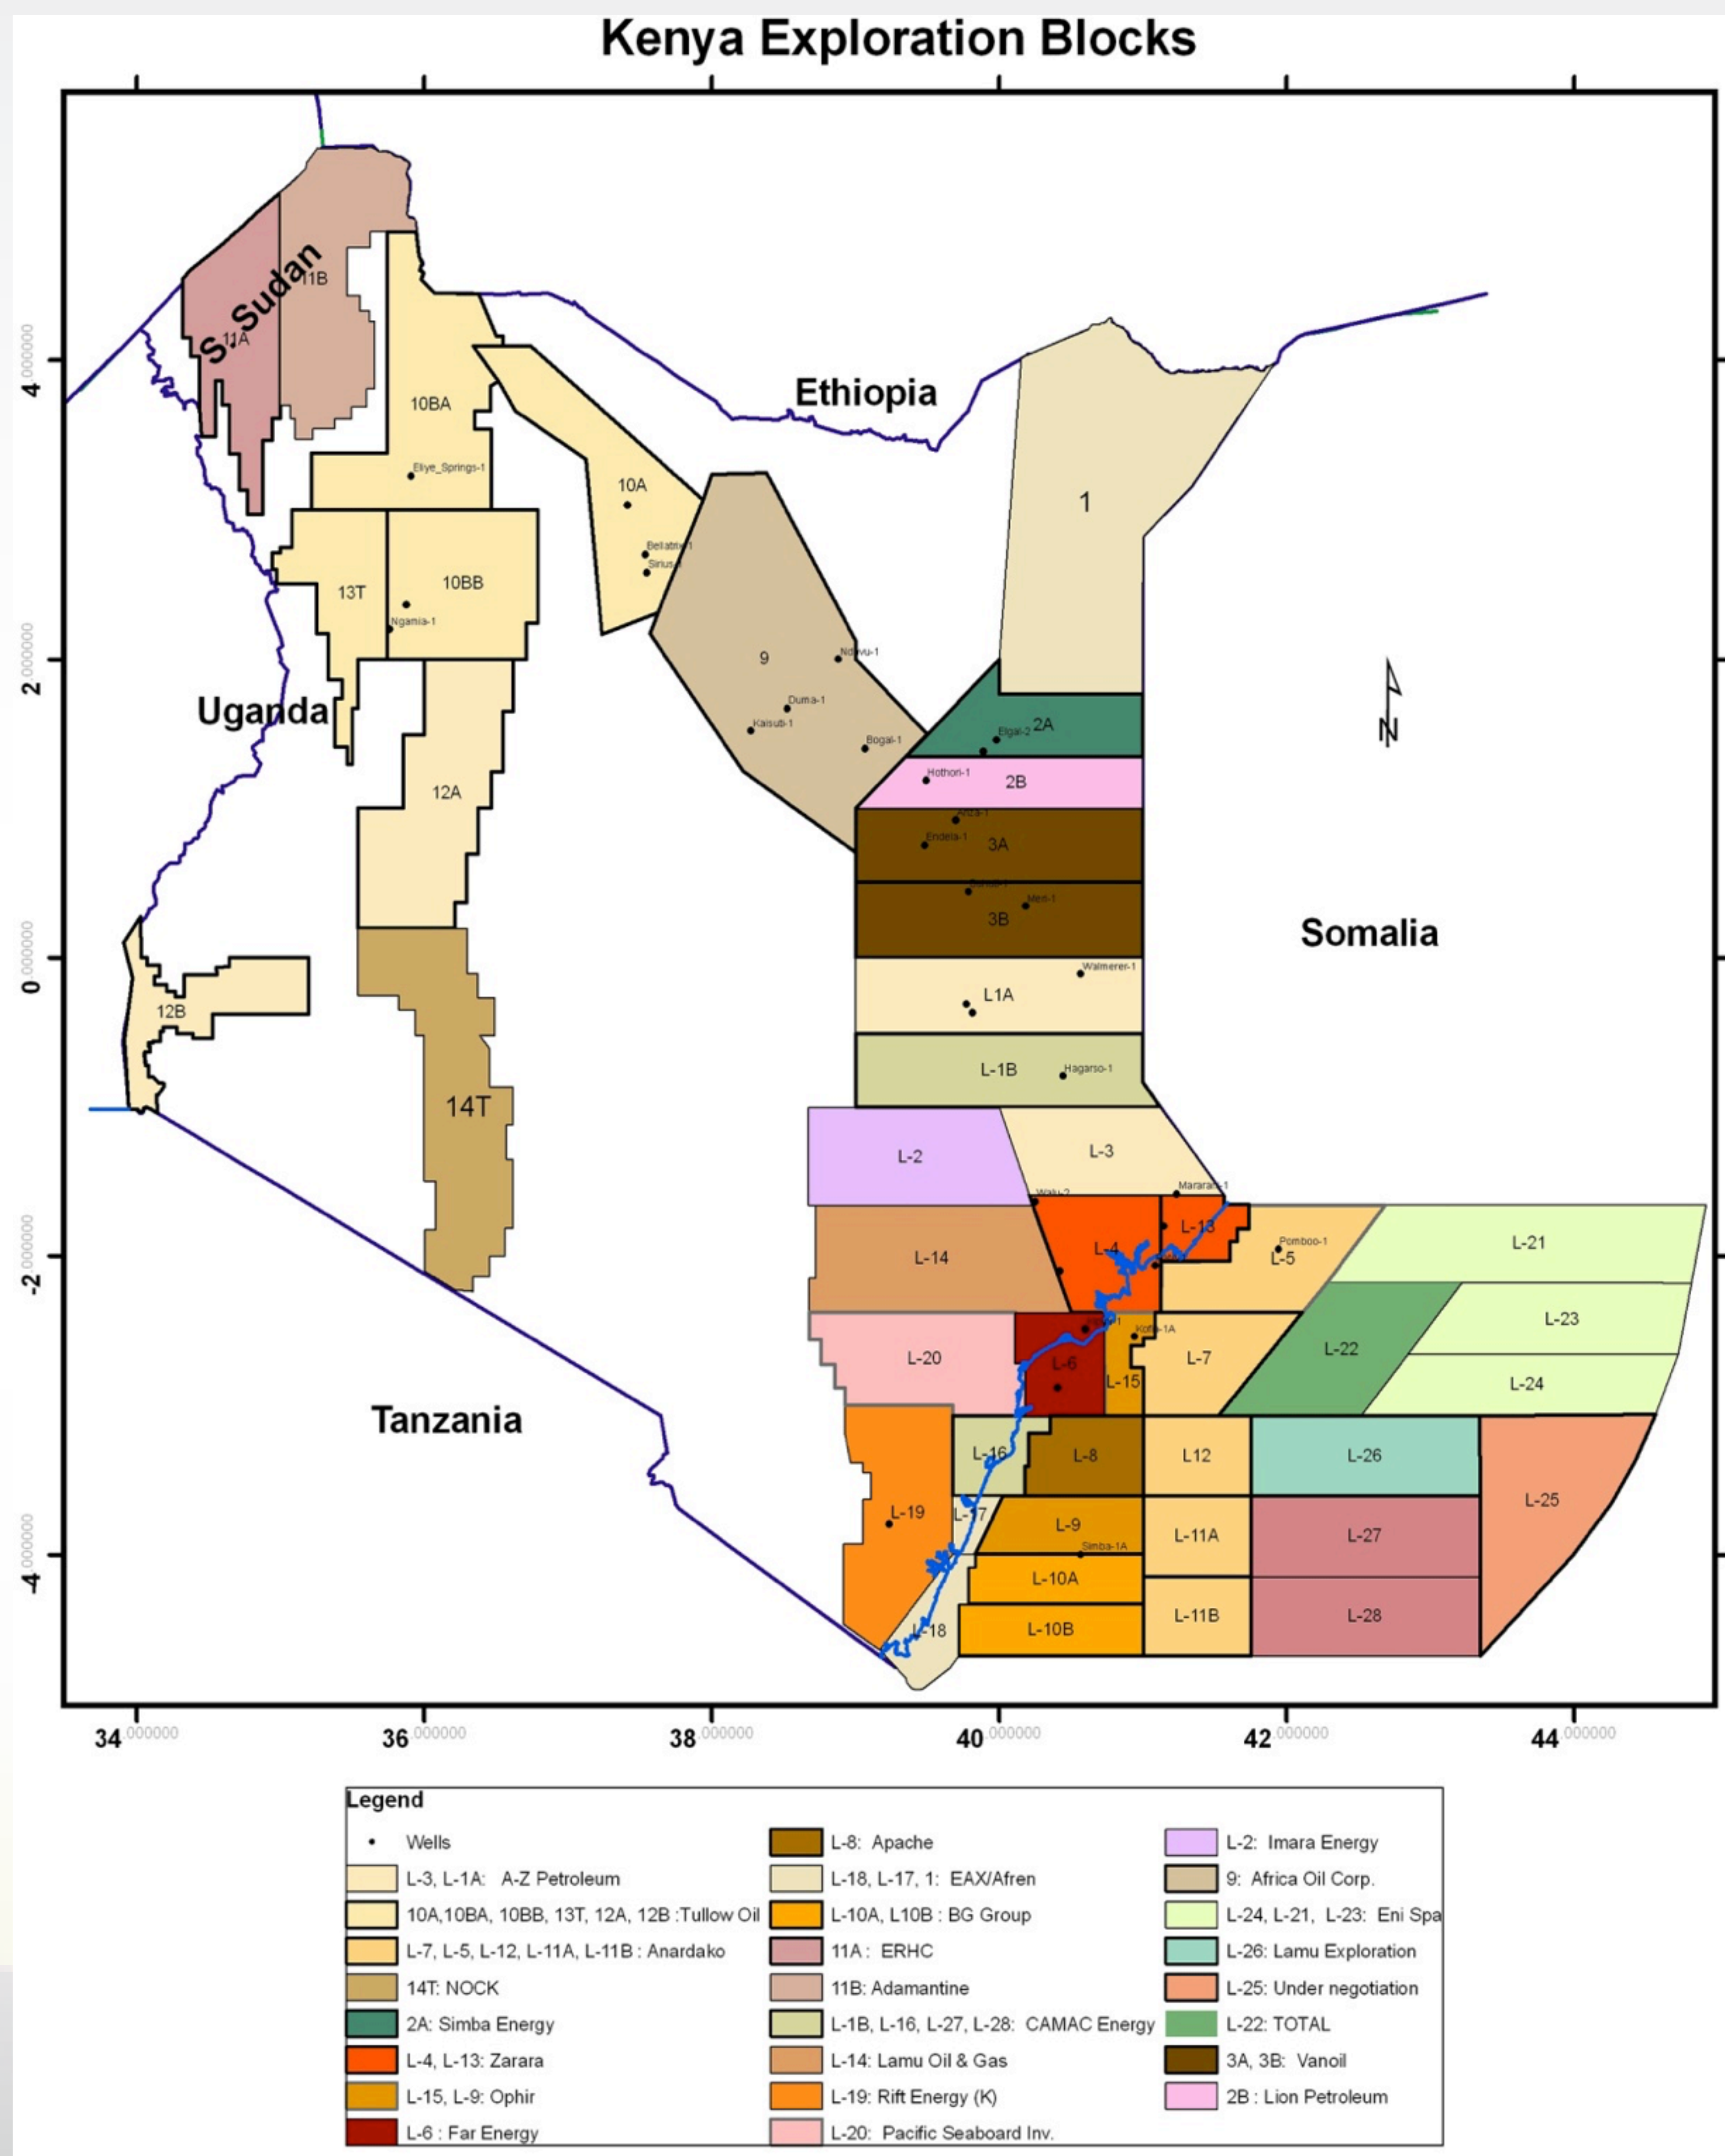

A FUTURE WITHOUT POVERTY

OXFAM

WHERE IS THE OIL IN KENYA?

MAP SHOWING LOCATION OF OIL BLOCKS IN KENYA'S BASINS

Source: The Kenya Civil Society Platform on Oil and Gas, Setting the Agenda for the Development of Kenya's Oil and Gas Resources Report, July 2014

A FUTURE WITHOUT POVERTY

OXFAM

DID YOU KNOW IT'S YOUR RIGHT TO GET INVOLVED?

KNOW HOW THE OIL DISCOVERY AFFECTS YOUR LIFE
BY PARTICIPATING IN A COMMUNITY MEETING IN YOUR AREA ON ISSUES ON:

Land Rights

Environment

Employment & Revenue

Infrastructure & Development

A FUTURE WITHOUT POVERTY

OXFAM